Dream road trips to suit your style.

The Aficionado: Grab the keys to your choice of seven Ferraris during Kensington Tours' six-day zip through Tuscany. One car ahead, a guide plots a route for vineyard visits, estate stays, a field trip to the Ferrari Museum, and a lap around the Ferrari F430 Challenge track before (valet) parking for good in Portofino on the Italian Riviera. Departures: Any day through 2015; from $29,995.

The Biker: Trace a two-wheel route through Patagonian peaks and fjord lands with Cox & Kings' ten-day guided motorcycle trip from Pucón, Chile. The ride covers nearly 1,300 miles and reaches as far south as Pumalín Park, one of ten national parks and reserves en route. Except for a rest day in Bariloche, Argentina, riders spend six to nine hours in the saddle daily, with regular photo stops along scenic stretches of western Argentina's Ruta 40, Chile's Carretera Austral, and the Pan-American Highway. Departures: Multiple dates through 2015; from $6,550.

Clockwise from above: Redlining in Tuscany, northern Patagonia by bike, and Botswana's off-road adventure.

The Overlander: Shift into four-wheel-drive for one of Abercrombie & Kent's seven new Land Rover adventures. Guides and a driving instructor accompany convoys of up to six vehicles through Scotland, Botswana, Namibia, the Australian Outback, and other wild lands. In Tanzania, climb the Ngorongoro Crater escarpment and cruise the Serengeti and various reserves known for excellent wildlife viewing and off-road terrain during an eight-day guided safari. Tanzania departures: Multiple dates September 4 through November 4; from $13,250.

Over a series of weekends through December, the Boca Raton Resort & Club, Rome Cavalieri, and select other Waldorf Astoria properties will offer three-hour McLaren, Ferrari, and Porsche test drives. Pro racers Didier Theys, Vanina Ickx, and Eric van de Poele provide driver training. Test drives from $999 for two people, not including accommodations.
