Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Launches Cooking Classes for Kids

HOTEL & RESORT | FIESTA AMERICANA HOTELS & RESORTS | AUGUST 20, 2015

Nestled on Cancún’s finest stretch of private beach Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Cancun, a member of the prestigious Preferred Hotels & Resorts, is an award winning luxury resort specializing in experiential travel, spa and cuisine. Perfect for the whole family to enjoy, the hotel has recently opened its newest lavish addition -- Coral KidZ Club -- a $2 million, 40,000–square–foot innovative and interactive “high–tech playground.” Rivaling any other children's facility in Latin America and beyond, the KidZ Club is designed for children ages 3 to 12, or ‘Generation Z,’ and features more than 40 ground–breaking indoor and outdoor activities.

In celebration of the recent launch, Coral KidZ Club is excited to announce a new cooking class series as a part of the interactive KidZ program. Featuring hands–on classes led by the resort’s acclaimed Executive Chef, Francisco Flores, mini chefs will have the opportunity to learn their way around the KidZ Club's new kitchen and whip up tasty, kid favorite dishes including pizzas, cookies and a variety of party food. As part of the cooking class series, kids will be given pint-sized aprons and chef hats to borrow so they feel like Master Chefs while preparing and enjoying their favorite dishes. Children may be accompanied by parents.

Mini chef cooking classes are offered on Wednesday and Saturdays at 3:00pm (Afternoon session) in the Coral KidZ Club year-round. Two complimentary classes are included in the KidZ Club "passport," while additional classes are priced at $18 per child.
