What makes sophisticated kids want to spend a day at a kids' club? The Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Cancun has figured out the answer with a new, beautifully designed 50,000 square foot space that offers non-stop fun for the 3 to 12 year old set.

Welcome to the forest

The space sparkles. Families are greeted with bright colors, multi-lingual greetings, and the all-important array of electronic games. The youngest guests, ages 3-5, will find an area devoted to imagination and learning where toddlers can choose between city, park or jungle themes. The cityscape features Mexican-style homes and a fire station with a fire hose can be used to put out a virtual fire; an I-spy wall made up of Latin American iconography; a construction zone; and, a Mercado and play kitchen. Kids can curl up with a book in the Jungle room, a quiet zone deep in the forest.

Hello technology!

Tweens and teens pass through an illuminated arched portal and are transported to the computer zone. Beyond that, the latest Xbox and Wii play-systems can be enjoyed within the futuristic gaming area. Theatre buffs will enjoy the Open Play Theater, which features a stage with a digital backdrop, a light-up dance floor and a backstage dressing room complete with costumes, make-up and dressing mirrors. And budding artists can indulge in arts & crafts while being inspired by an ocean view.

The gorgeous resort at night

Since most families want their kids to be active and outside for at least part of the day, the Coral KidZ Club has plans for a fabulous outdoor space with a Mayan themed playground, an Explorer Ship that includes a “Sprayground” sprinkler, as well as a rock climbing wall, and a basketball court. Shortly, a custom race car track where kids can race their very own remote controlled cars will open.

The best part might be the staff and the terrific schedule they have put together. Kids are kept busy with a well-organized menu of events that offers something new every hour and changes daily. When I visited, last week, some of the super fun activities included: a water balloon fight, soccer, piñata making, a nerf battle, and a treasure hunt. Downtime might include bracelet making, a cooking class or Mexican bingo.

A kid friendly dessert

Since your kids will be begging to return to the Coral Kidz Club, make sure you make good use of your time by indulging in one of the resort’s special spa treatments. The Gem Spa is spectacular and offers hydrotherapy, aromatherapy and gem therapy. You may just have time to try them all.

The sensations pool is a spa favorite
