FEBRUARY 09, 2017

When it comes to travel, we say go big or go home. This year the biggest trips are taking place high in the sky, with travelers flying from one spectacular destination to the next in the ultimate luxury of a private aircraft. From a two-week African safari to a bona fide around-the-world adventure, these new private-jet journeys are the ultimate high-flying fantasies.

Discover Your Italy's Grand Tour of Italy by Private Jet

Discover Your Italy is taking Italophiles on the whirlwind trip of their dreams with its 15-day Grand Tour of Italy by Private Jet experience. Priced from about $17,000 per person, the fast-paced itinerary will have travelers cruising Italy's Lake Como at sunset one day, and touring the Verona Arena the next. Additional stops include the Amalfi Coast, Tuscany, Sardinia, and Sicily. Experiences at every stop are customizable, regardless of whether you fancy a gourmet lunch in Padua, a boat ride in the famed Grotto, or a tour of the Mt. Etna volcano.
