Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Cancún

iamdawnmccoy I was talking to a woman here at @GrandCoralBeach yesterday after she had said something mildly disparaging about her body. I responded with, "One day, you're going to look back at how you look in that bathing suit today and feel angry at yourself for not seeing how beautiful you truly are." Not gonna lie. I'm great at giving advice like that, but I'm not always the best at following it. I've had quite an exhausting and tumultuous journey over the years with my mind, body and food.

But when I stood here on my balcony this morning in my nightie, drinking coffee. I reminded myself of what I'd told her. And, I thought of standing on this same balcony when I'm in my 70s one day.
