HOTEL DEBUTS IN LONDON

Have you heard of SE1? Touted as one of London's hottest districts on the south bank of the River Thames, this culturally dynamic area is a stone's throw away from Tate Modern, British Film Institute, and Borough Market. Visitors to the neighborhood may want to check out — and stay at — Bankside, a design-forward hotel that recently made its stylish debut. One of the newest Autograph Collection Hotels, part of Marriott International, Bankside boasts 161 airy-residential style rooms with modern mid-century influences, creative space with live-work lounges, art-filled interiors, and a restaurant and bar with outdoor terrace serving a relaxed seasonal menu. For a fun twist on the mini-bar, a carefully stocked vending machine sells a small collection wine, spirits, pre-blended cocktails, soft drinks, and snacks on each guest-room floor. You won't need cash to access the goodies; your room key charges all purchases to your account. Rates from $375. www.banksidehotel.com/
