

Give the Gift of Transformative Travel, and Give Everything

11.9.2018

Sponsored by Athleta

Travel has the power to transform. This holiday season, gift outdoor experiences that will offer new perspectives.

GIVE HER STILLNESS

What better gift is there than one that encourages the recipient to bask in the stillness of natural beauty while indulging in some proper pampering at the same time? For a vacation that delivers jaw-dropping views along with a decadent wellness escape, consider the Six Senses Douro Valley in Portugal. Defined by rolling hills covered in vines cut through by the Douro River, the landscape here breathes serenity. Resort programs range from daily pilates and yoga classes to tree-climbing adventures and beauty product workshops using natural ingredients, so you can be as active or mellow as you like. Keep your style casual and uber-cozy between activities with the Cozy Karma Longer Wrap or Criss Cross Back Hoodie Sweatshirt - once you feel their remarkably plush interior softness on your skin, you'll never want to take them off.

And for a focus on body treatments and wellness treatments that will have you donning a plush bathrobe, head to Mexico's inimitable Gem Spa at Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Cancun. The 40,000 square foot spa has a hydrotherapy circuit that surrounds you with Italian mosaics, black granite and other evocative materials meant to soothe and pamper you alongside treatments inspired by the healing properties of natural gems.