LOS ANGELES, CA, MARCH 27, 2019 – Known for its insider access and authentic immersive experiences, Cox & Kings, the world's most enduring luxury travel brand, announces new itineraries in Europe as it continues to expand its offerings on the continent. New options for travelers looking to explore the best of the region include these three quintessentially European journeys to Switzerland, Scandinavia and Scotland.

Exploring Denmark & Sweden

Chic Scandinavian style and rich culture await guests with visits to design-forward Copenhagen, historic Stockholm, and beyond. Travelers explore the Danish capital's famous sights, from the Little Mermaid statue to Amalienborg Palace, all with a private guide. A day excursion to North Zealand includes Kronborg Castle, also known as Hamlet's Castle, and Frederiksborg Castle. Then, the journey continues by first class train to Stockholm to take in Gamla Stan, one of the best-preserved medieval city centers in the world, and the Vasa Museum, housing a reclaimed sunken 17th century ship. Boat tours in each city carry guests through Copenhagen's canals and Stockholm's archipelago. Dining on local cuisine and in some of world's best restaurants offers a deeper dive into these fascinating cultures. Pricing for this private 8 Day/7 Night journey starts at $5,995 for dates through March 2020.

Switzerland & Snow - Capped Alps

Guests take in sublime mountain and glacier views, while soaking up the local culture traveling aboard legendary Swiss trains, including the Glacier Express and the Gornergrat Railway at an altitude of 10,135 feet. Brimming with fairytale experiences, the itinerary includes a horse drawn carriage ride in the stunningly picturesque Val Fex valley and exploring Chillon Castle, a medieval fortress on an island in Lake Geneva. A private sleigh ride winds through the woods, crosses alpine meadows and passes majestic frozen waterfalls ending at a small local restaurant for dinner. Of course, a chocolate making workshop and tasting traditional fondue are also on the agenda. Pricing for this private 12 Day/11 Night journey starts at $9,599 for dates through March 31, 2020.

Royal Scotland

This Luxury Small Group Journey explores Scotland, a lush land of lochs, verdant mountains, surreal seascapes, and charming villages, all united by a proud historic character. Guests discover Scotland's courageous history while taking in UNESCO sites, ancient ruins, palaces, and castles in its celebrated cities and ruggedly beautiful Highlands. Senses are ignited with the true sights, sounds, and flavors of Scotland – from whiskey tastings and local pubs to bag pipes and the storied “Nessie” of Loch Ness. Travelers board the famous Jacobite steam train for an 84-mile voyage described as on one the world's great railway journeys for its impressive and extreme scenery. Robust with insider experiences and authentic cultural interactions, this Scottish itinerary provides magical memories to last a lifetime. Pricing for this 8 Day/7 Night Luxury Small Group Journey from $6,295 for dates starting June 21, 2019.

These new offerings come fresh on the heels of five brand-new trips introduced earlier this year with itineraries that span the globe.
